Sharing Christmas 2015

Many of our wonderful Act II volunteers joined together for another successful Sharing Christmas ministry. Tables filled with clothes, toys and other Christmas gifts were collected and sold at greatly discounted prices for our South Street community. And along the way, just under $1000 was raised! Thanks to our volunteers and First UMC, Winter Park.

Act II Singles at "Painting with a Twist"

A group of our Act II Singles experienced a unique afternoon last month at "Painting with a Twist." They were given step-by-step instructions on how to recreate a featured painting. Here you see them at work and their finished products. Good job!

Senior Stories Project at First UMC, Winter Park

This past fall, our church sponsored an intergenerational project called Senior Stories, where high school students were paired with older adults. The students were coached in intergenerational communication by Dr. Anne Stone of Rollins College and our own Art Cross.

The student and adult pair met numerous times to get to know each other. The final meeting was video'ed. The video was edited down and shown at a special luncheon where their families were invited.

The students learned valuable life lessons from the older adult and in so doing, friendships were developed.

Click on the link below to see the video of Act II's Pat Patton and Winter Park High School student Kelly Wright. We hope to feature more videos in upcoming Act II Newsletters.
