

Why the Vision?

Reasons for new vision and structure changes:

1. Empowering of our Lay Leaders
2. Building accountability between ministry teams
3. Increasing collaboration between ministry teams

Pillar Discussion - As we work through this new structure, here are some thoughts and ideas to keep in mind regarding each pillar:

Vibrant Family	Gracious Hosts	Passionate Seekers	Christ-like Servants
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Equipping others but also equipping others to serve• Providing community focus, energy and growth• Supporting each other in both beautiful and messy times• Praying for people in the ministry as well as the broader church	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Utilizing hospitality along the faith journey• Understanding that everyone is at a different point in their faith journey• Pursuing an intentional relationship throughout the faith journey• Holding a foundation on the knowledge that God's love is not earned, but given	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Using scripture to better interact with people• Acting and doing by the grace God offers• Driving to become better Christians• Unifying together in discipleship	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Inviting and meeting people where they are at• Serving those not like you• Leaving the security of our comfort zones• Acting based on His example• Living into the examples of Christ, not stopping at intellectual understanding
